

Ecuador's Ambassador Tells Assange to 'Shut Up': Watch 22nd Vigil

Consortium News, March 29, 2019

The 22nd Unity4J online vigil for Julian Assange was webcast on Friday with guests Tim Canova, Lissa Johnson, Cassandra Fairbanks and more. Watch it here.

In addition to journalist Cassandra Fairbanks, who discussed her bombshell report from inside the Ecuadorian embassy in London, we were joined by Lissa Johnson, who spoke about her five part series, "The Psychology of Getting Julian Assange," and by Tim Canova, a law professor who challenged Debby Wasserman Schultz in a Democratic Primary for a Florida seat in the US House of Representatives. Wasserman Schultz was forced to resign as chairwoman of the Democratic National Committee right after the publication of the DNC emails by WikiLeaks just before the start of the DNC convention in July 2016.
